THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE

is printed on a large double medium sheet, making eight pages of six broad columns each. It contains all the important Editorials published in THE DAILY TRIBUNE, except those of merely local interest; also Literary and Scientific Intelligence. Reviews of the most interesting and important New Books; Letters from our large corps of correspondents; the latest news received by Telegraph from Washington, and all other parts of the country; a Summary of all important intelligence in this city and elsewhere; a Synopsis of the Proceedings of Congress and State Legislature when in session; Executive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Talks about Fruit, and other Horticultural and Agricultural Information essential to country residents; Stocks, Financial, Current Dry Goods and General Market Reports; making, both for variety and completeness, altogether the most valuable, interesting and instructive WEEKLY NEWS-PAPER published in the world.

The Full Reports of the American Institute Fair's Club, and the various Agricultural Reports, in each number, are richly worth a year's subscription.

THE NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

is published every THURSDAY and FRIDAY, and contains all the Editorial articles, not merely local in character; Literary Reviews and Art Criticisms; Letters from our large corps of Foreign and Domestic Correspondents; Special and Associated Press; Telegrams; Dispatches; Careful and Complete Summaries of Foreign and Domestic News; Exclusive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Talks about Fruit, and other Horticultural and Agricultural Information; Stock, Financial, Current Dry Goods and General Market Reports, which are published in THE DAILY TRIBUNE.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is also given, in the course of a year, THREE OR FOUR of the LAST AND LATEST POPULAR NOTES, by living authors. The cost of these alone, if bought in book form, would be from six to eight dollars, to be purchased in the ENGLISH MAGAZINES, from which they are carefully selected; the cost would be three or four times that sum. Nowhere else can so much current intelligence and permanent literary matter be had at so cheap a rate as in the SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Those who believe in the principles and approve of the character of THE TRIBUNE can increase its power and influence by joining with their neighbors in forming clubs to subscribe for THE SEMI-WEEKLY EDITION. It will in that way be supplied to them at the lowest price for which such a paper can be printed.

Mail subscribers, 1 copy, 1 year—104 numbers, $1.00

Mail subscribers, 2 copies, 1 year, $1.75

" 5 copies, or over, for each copy $1.00

ZION'S HERALD.

This is the oldest Methodist newspaper in the world. It is published by the Boston Wesleyan Association, composed of twenty members of the Methodist Episcopate Church, and is the recognized organ of our church in New England. The Association undertakes the risk and care of publication solely for the benefit of the Methodist Church and the cause of Christ, without receiving any fee or reward whatever for their services. Although other Methodist papers in the United States never received any support from the said Conference, it is, therefore, entirely dependent on its own patronage. It after paying the necessary expenses of publishing, any profits arising therefrom are paid to the New England, Maine, New Hampshire, Providence, Vermont, and East Maine Conferences.

The HERALD AND JOURNAL is published weekly at $2.50 per year. Individuals to act as agents.

2. All Tract Publishers in the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents, to whom payment may be made.

3. All communications designed for publication should be addressed to the Editor, and letters on business should be addressed to the Agent.

4. All biographies, accounts of revivals, and other matters involving merit, must be accompanied with the names of the writers.

5. We wish agents to be particular to write the names of subscribers in full, and the name of the Post Office to which papers are to be sent, in such manner that there can be no misunderstanding.
